LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I can confidently recommend gradify.ai because of my experience working with founder Krzysztof Palczewski in the field of professional data science learning and development.

In a recent educational program delivered for a multinational enterprise on a digital transformation journey, Krzysztof performed beyond expectations as an expert instructor leading training participants to achieve their professional goals through state-of-the-art project-based learning in Python programming and ML model validation techniques.

-- Jason Strand, Director of Enterprise Engagement, Galvanize